

Overview:

The following information highlights the changes to Remote Control with the 08/05/2005 RMC Release. Please refer to the Remote Control web-based training or the Remote Control User Guide for further information.

Address Validations

Enter address information and select "Next". A message indicating address validation will be displayed.

- When validation is complete, one of the following messages will appear:

Match Found

Service Address Information

Address Match Found.
Customer Clli code provided is invalid.We have replaced it with a valid value.

- To continue with order, select "Next".

No Match Found

Service Address Information

Address cannot be validated,verify the address is correct and continue.

- If address information is changed, address will be revalidated.
- If address is correct as entered, select "Next" to continue.

Near Match Found

Service Address Information

Exact Service Address could not be found. Please select a location from the list below.

- A drop-down menu of near matches will be provided.
  - Select match from list provided.
  - If range of addresses is returned, replace range with specific address.
  - If address is not provided in near match, select "Next" to continue.
- Selecting "Next" to continue will revalidate address if changes were made to original entry.

Loop Tracking ID

The Loop Tracking ID is assigned per loop in Q.pricer. Please provide the ID in the designated field(s) in RMC.

Note: QMPL orders will not have a Loop Tracking ID. For these orders, provide the Q.pricer Quote ID in the designated field.

Local Access Information
How will Local Access be obtained to Originating Location:*	Qwest Provided Local Access ▾
Loop Tracking ID:*	<input type="text"/>
Qwest Provided Local Access	